

Kimpton's Eventi Celebrates 30 Years of Staying True to You with a "Now You Can Say I do!" LGBT Wedding Package

Manhattan's Chelsea neighborhood came alive as the LGBT community celebrated the enacted Marriage Equality Act. This milestone joins the thousands of memorable moments that Kimpton has celebrated with the LGBT community throughout its 30 year history, and to help celebrate, Eventi is introducing the brand new LGBT wedding package, "Now You Can Say, I Do!", which includes the following:

- Complimentary Indoor or Outdoor Ceremony Space
- Video or Photo Montage shown on The Big Screen Project (a 30 x 16.5 foot public arts and culture L.E.D. screen)
- Two free nights at any Kimpton of your choice, perfect for a mini-moon!
- 75 guest minimum

Kimpton is proud to be the only hotel brand to score 100% on the HRC Corporate Equality index for four years in a row and has provided continual support to the LGBT community through KPride, the company's employee resource center, along with many other initiatives.

Kimpton's 50th property and fourth New York City hotel, Eventi, offers a diverse selection of intimate and elegant wedding venues to compliment Kimpton's Something Blue, Stay True to You Program, creating an event that's all about you! The hotel also features spectacular outdoor space and terraces with views of the Empire State Building and Manhattan skyline. Eventi's Grand Ballroom can accommodate more than 400 guests and there are also luxurious presidential and hospitality suites that are ideal for intimate wedding parties.
